1. The essay is out!

The essay will be due on March 10th. Please message us or drop by office hours with questions! We can't give you answers, but we can nudge you in more fruitful directions.

2. Our activity for today: Gov 1780 Jeopardy

So much course material, so little time. What better way to tackle it all at once?

Gov 1780 Jeopardy

Procedure and rules preceding the battle of the semester:

1. Assign two teams.
2. Assign a chat monitor. (The chat monitor will still participate!) Once I have spoken the question, any of you may type 'Y' into the chat to indicate your desire to respond on behalf of your team. The chat monitor will keep track of who typed 'Y' first. (Chat monitor: Typing '--' after the question is answered correctly will help keep it organized.)
3. If your answer is incorrect, the next person that typed 'Y' will be allowed to give their answer. Each team will be allowed only one answer per question.

You're all winners in this class, but only one team can win Gov 1780 Jeopardy.
